Hartnell Theatre Hosts Jazz Concert For Borough, Anderson Scholarships

The Little Theatre will be a swinging place tomorrow night when the Ambassadors play a benefit jazz concert. All proceeds from the concert will go toward the scholarship funds of Dr. Borough and Mr. Anderson.

Local jazz buff Dr. Sandgren has described the group as "Brubeckian" in approach.

David Satre, leader of the group and also the bass player, is from Hartnell. While in the Army

Dave stayed with music by playing in the "world famous Third Army Band." He also played in the other Army bands and was graduated from the Naval School of Music in the 3.0 honor club. Dave is now playing in the Symphonic Band, Orchestra, Brass Ensemble and Studio Band at San Jose State.

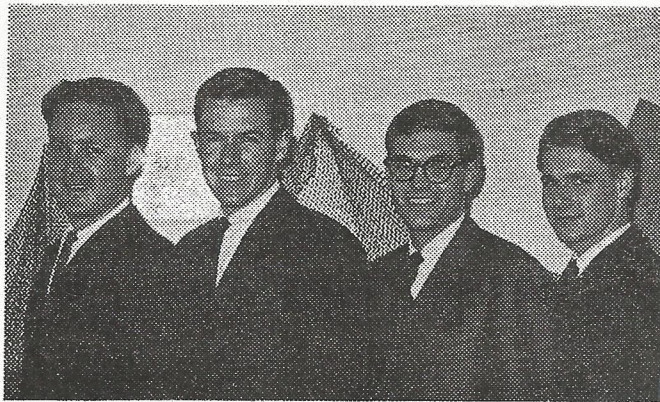

Jim Lichens is from Salinas and was graduated from North Salinas High. Jim holds down the guitar spot. He has matured to the point where he is considered one of the top local jazz men. Jim has been influenced by Gabor Szabo, Downbeat's New Star Guitar award-winner last year.

Bruce Roystan, the alto sax player of the group, won first chair in the State High School Honor Band while a student at Cupertino High. Bruce is featured as a soloist and lead alto with the Foothill Junior College stage band this year, and has played with Louis Bellison for a concert there.

Steve Smith, drummer boy, is from Indianapolis, where he taught himself the art of drumming. He played with Wes Montgomery for a while and claims Benny Barth was his biggest influence.

Donations will be a minimum of 50 cents with student body cards, and $1.00 without. Performance starts at 8:00.

■ Leading off the benefit jazz concert on Tuesday night will be the slightly fabulous Ambassadors, who are, from left to right, Dave Satre, bass; Jim Lichens, guitar; Steve Smith, drums, and Bruce Roystan, alto sax. All proceeds from the show will go into the scholarship funds.
